

This New Jersey proposal is in conflict with several aspects of the National Do Not Call Process. National DNC has 70 million people on it..it is working. Passage of these "extra" measures just makes it difficult for companies to do business. Listen, every day hundreds of thousands of people buy some product via telemarketing. These type of laws could shut down the industry!